At the Institute of Sociology of the Faculty of Social Sciences at the Johann Wolfgang Goethe University Frankfurt am Main, Prof. Dr. Daniela Grunow is looking for a

Postdoctoral Researcher (m/f) (EG 13 TV –GU; Full-time) to start in March 2014. The position is initially fixed until 31 Dec 2015.

The regulations of the German ‘Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetz’ in conjunction with the “Hessischen Hochschulgesetz” apply to the time limitation of the contract. The position is financed by the European Research Council and the Johann Wolfgang Goethe University Frankfurt am Main.

Responsibilities:
The postdoctoral researcher will work in collaboration with the principal investigator on the APPARENT subproject NEWS (http://apparent-project.com/subpro_main.html#news). Using quantitative and qualitative methods of content analysis, this project explores how the representation of fathers and mothers in the print media has changed over time and how this differs cross-nationally.

In addition, the postdoctoral researcher will have a teaching commitment at the Faculty of Social Sciences for 20% of his/her working hours. Opportunities for self-directed research, in particular for further qualification, and participation in ongoing international research projects, will be provided.

Requirements:

• Doctoral Degree (PhD) in the social sciences.
• Excellent knowledge of quantitative content analysis, as demonstrated by peer-reviewed publications.
• Excellent knowledge in the application of advanced quantitative methods (Stata, SPSS).
• Experience with cross-national research.

Our department aims to increase the proportion of women among academic staff and therefore encourages women to apply.

Please send your application with the usual documents (cover letter, CV, copies of certificates, two publications, publication list), quoting the reference number 5/2014 before 28.02.2014 to the Dean of the Faculty of Social Sciences at the JW Goethe University: dekanat.fb03-applications @ soz.uni-frankfurt.de.
